This is dedicated to everyone who believed in me, and to everyone who loved and continues to love me. All I can really say is: Thank you.

Jose Lorenzo C. Sison

Jolo embodies what it means to be someone who would be willing to run through a wall for his friends. What truly speaks volumes of his character would be the amount of heart he pours into each aspect of his life. His love for people is exuded in everything he does; his passion is clearly displayed like a badge of honor bestowed upon him. He is constantly and wholeheartedly willing to give whatever it is that is necessary for those most important to him regardless of the situation. (R. Reyes)
