Troy Gabriel S. Ang Ko

MINOR IN MANAGEMENT, DATA SCIENCE AND ANALYTICS

Sometimes quirky but often times funny, Troy is someone you’d be happy to be with all the time. With his out-of-nowhere quips and super corny but effective puns, expect humor to be served plenty whenever he’s around. As a friend, you can always count on him to be that dependable (and sober) guy to carry you through a project, or literally carry you when you get drunk and can barely stand. He’s not a good guy; he’s not a bad guy; he’s just the guy you’ll surely be glad to have met in college.
