“Better an oops than a what if.” (Beau Taplin)

It’s not that I pride myself on mistakes, but rather that I see them as opportunities for growth. I am also thankful for all the people that have come into my life; regardless of whether they have stayed or not. This outspoken dancer is a product of all of you.

Cliché, but I firmly believe that every cliché holds some truth in them.

Swiggity swag, college in the bag.
