Francisco

MINOR IN MANAGEMENT

Danielle is a rare soul. Her mere presence emanates comfort and happiness. She puts others before herself and gives what she can wholeheartedly without expecting anything in return. She is the encouragement, the praise, and the “real talk” when you need it most, and the one who understands and stays when nobody else could. She will make you feel loved, appreciated, and accepted. She will make you fall in love with life a thousand times. Danielle simply makes everything and everyone better. (YZ)
