MINOR IN MARKETING

Journeys are meant to be experienced, to be lived for, and to die for. My Ateneo journey gave me a wealth of knowledge that has made me better intellectually and spiritually for the coming future. For the sleepless nights, endless requirements and countless papers that I conquered, for the gift of friendship from my blockmates, classmates and orgmates, and for the inspiration from my professors. Thank you, Ateneo, for bringing out the best in me.

MINOR IN ENTERPRISE DEVELOPMENT

Five years, one course shift, and two small businesses later, and Ateneo has made me grow so much as a person.
