

Levi R. Ambagan

Levi had been one of my first college friends during my stay in Ateneo, and there's definitely a reason why by the end of it, he's one of the closest friends I'm happy to have had all throughout. He truly is one of the kindest and most genuine people that I've had the fortune of encountering during my time in Ateneo. If there's one thing I'll remember about Levi, it wouldn't be his slick hair nor his signature boots, but rather the kind of friend he was. Always down to go to KFC. (Justin)
