

Eduardo Crisogono V. Ermita

What is there that is not to love about Gino? For one, he can be your best friend who will push for hangouts even if it is just to waste time with you at home. He can also be your brother who you could just grab a beer with and talk to about anything under the sun. He is that true blue Atenean, steadfast and heart-strong for the greater glory of God. Most of all, he became my college sweetheart, a charming prince always speaking and acting from the heart.

Antonio Carlos G. Escolin

“Anton Escolin, that name will stick in my mind probably forever. When you see Anton, he looks like a gentle looking fellow, yet he doesn’t eat like one. Anton maybe silly or childish sometimes, but when he has work to do he is locked in and he is very focused in what he’s doing. In our do or die game against FEU he had an inspirational message that he sent to Coach Tab that touched and helped us. He showed his love and dedication to the team through the little things and details.” (B. Andrade)
