Do not forget to look back from where you came from. Keep in mind that the starting point is just as important as the finish line and that it's really only by considering these two together that we will be able to properly understand and appreciate the journey that we went on here in Ateneo. Our journey may be likened to a cocktail drink because it was undeniably a mixture of tears and all-nighters, smiles and laughter, successes and failures. I honestly think it's the perfect blend!
