"Few things are impossible to diligence and skill. Great works are performed not by strength, but perseverance." (Samuel Johnson) I have lived my entire life knowing I am one of the brightest stars in the sky. I excelled in a lot of things and Ateneo just made me even brighter. But that's not important. I realized Ateneo is not teaching me how to outshine everyone else. It is teaching me how to go down from the sky and stop staring at this world from up above. Step down and be the light in this world where people can see you without a telescope. Lead, inspire, motivate. If you can't find joy in this world then be it.
